HISTORY & MISSION

KAFSC was born 35 years ago when a group of concerned community members organized to help women and children suffering from domestic violence and abuse. Starting out humbly in church basements with volunteers and consultants dedicated to ending violence within Korean-American families, KAFSC has now grown over the last 34 years to the premier non-profit organization that it is today.

With the help of our unwavering supporters, we will continue to serve those in need and empower our community to break the cycle of violence. Our counseling, education, and advocacy programs for individuals and families in the New York Tri-State area are provided in a culturally and linguistically appropriate setting. All of our services are confidential, bilingual, and free to the community.
